Purple

Purple is the color of royalty. Purple has always been associated with nobility, spirituality and romanticism. Red and blue combine to make this intriguing regal color. Since it's a mixture of one hot and one cool color it has both warm and cool properties.

A purple room can boost a child's imagination and increase an artist's creativity. Deeper and brighter shades of purple suggest riches while lighter shades of purple incline towards its soft, delicate and romantic side. Purple has been traditionally associated with royalty in many cultures.
