Pink

Pink is a combination of red & white. It is a color of universal love and provides a feeling of caring, tenderness, self-worth, love & acceptance. Both pink and red denote love but while red is hot passion, pink is romantic and charming and falls in the softer side of tenderness.

When multiple shades of pink, light purple and other pastels are used together they create and maintain the soft, delicate playful nature of pink. All shades of pink become sophisticated when black, gray or darker shades of blue are added to it.
